What is different about crises in cities?

Humanitarian crises in urban environments are complex and require effective, context-specific approaches to addressing vulnerability and risk reduction, preparedness and response

Global Alliance for Urban Crises

The Global Alliance brings together diverse actors who commit to the principles outlined in the Urban Crisis Charter, including:

Academia / Think Tanks

Built Environment Professionals

Local Governments

National Governments /
Donors

Humanitarian and Development
Organizations

Civil Society /
Grassroots
Organizations

Members of the alliance work together on initiatives focused on four thematic objectives:

Global Alliance for Urban Crises

ADAPTING URBAN TOOLS

Tailoring humanitarian response to the urban context by developing shared assessment and profiling tools, promoting joint analysis, and adapting coordination mechanisms.

INITIATIVES

- Knowledge Product 1: Urban Profiling for Better Responses to Humanitarian Crises.
- Knowledge Product 5: Protocol of Engagement between Local Governments and Humanitarian Actors.

MANAGING URBAN DISPLACEMENT

Building the evidence base on characteristics of protracted displacement in urban areas and contributing to the design of appropriate and cost-effective responses, with particular regard to protection of vulnerable people, shelter, basic services and infrastructure.

INITIATIVES

- Knowledge Product 3: Urban Displacement from Different Perspectives.
- Humanitarian Learning Center Operational Practice Paper 4: Vulnerabilities in Urban Protracted Displacement.

MOBILIZING URBAN EXPERTISE

Developing or working with existing global, regional and national rosters to facilitate the deployment of urban leaders, managers and technical experts.

INITIATIVES

- Knowledge Product 2: Philippines Case Study
- The Global Alliance for Urban Crises Response Roster

BUILDING URBAN RESILIENCE

Ensuring that initiatives focused on building urban resilience incorporate components on resilient response and recovery from crises, and that they leverage greatest impact in cities most at risk of humanitarian emergencies.

INITIATIVES

- Knowledge Product 4: Building Urban Resilience in the Face of Crisis.

UK National Security Strategy, 2015

The National Security Context:

“Many drivers of instability are likely to persist over the medium to long term, including social inequality and exclusion, demographic changes, rapid and unplanned urbanisation, climate change, and global economic and other shocks. This is why we have chosen to focus more of our development effort on building stability overseas in fragile states.”
